

“Peace” – The Great Islamic Deception

Dangerous to your health: Part Three

The proposition is often put forward by ill-informed Christians that, “Terrorists have ‘hijacked’ Islam,” implying that Islam, at heart, is really a peaceful religion. Rolling steadily against that is a tsunami of deadly evidence to the contrary. This so-called ‘religion of peace’ is responsible for over 95% of all the wars and fighting on the planet today. “There are about 400 recognized terrorist groups currently active in the world and over 90% of these are radical Islamist terror movements.” [Mychal Massie WND 5/25/04]

The Bible teaches that in the future, a man will arise whose sole driving goal will be to achieve complete world domination through his political-military and religious empire. Islam has this exact same goal inherent in its core doctrines and eschatological teaching. In today’s climate of compromise it is politically incorrect to state this fact – but it is true!

The Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) is a Washington-based lobby group founded in 1994. It is self-described as a “moderate Islamic civil rights group” and according to spokesman Ibrahim Hooper, “We are similar to a Muslim NAACP.” CAIR enjoys respectful media citations, serious hearings by corporations, invitations to the White House and sizeable donations from Saudi sultans.

Omar Ahmed, Chairman of the Board of CAIR said, “Islam isn’t in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant. The Qur’an should be the highest authority in America and Islam the only accepted religion on earth.” Ahmed is hailed as a moderate and deceptively smooth. Even FOX’s Bill O’Reilly has had him on The Factor and it was hard to tell who was spinning whom.

Christianity teaches the importance of “truth” and its relation to freedom (John 8:32). By contrast, Muslims are taught from childhood to lie. Muhammad encouraged Muslims to lie, blaspheme and deny their beliefs if it was going to protect them, so long as they were “comfortable with faith” – translation: “didn’t mean it.” It’s the old idea of “the end justifies the means.” Lying is fine if it furthers the cause of Islam.

“The Qur’an teaches that it is allowable for Muslims to literally deny their faith in order to protect themselves. Muslims who deny their faith will be forgiven as long as their true faith was not really shaken (i.e. their denial was a lie in the purest sense) and only if their denial of faith was for the purpose of avoiding harm (primarily while living among non-Muslims).”¹

Lying is not only permitted, but fostered and frequently commanded in Islam. Westerners have a hard time relating to this purposeful exaggeration, concealing of the truth and frequent, outright, deliberate lying as a core part of this medieval religion. There are specific doctrines and traditions that promote a culture of dishonesty within Islam.

Of course there are some verses that discourage lying: “And cover not the Truth with falsehood, nor conceal the Truth when ye know (what it is)” – Surah 2:42. Muslims will point to these when challenged on veracity. But sadly, the exceptions to the rule have actually become the rule.

Viewed from within Islam, jihad is a struggle to bring all things into submission to Allah and Islam. The battle is waged to cause others to submit. In Christianity this is called evangelism. In Islam it is Dawah. Jihad is war and Muhammad said, “War is deception.”

There is an imperative for Islam to take over local and eventually national governments. Consider the Muslim politicians who through deceit have gained a seat in British and European parliaments and who today are steering their governments toward Sharia law. Many naïve, trusting individuals in the West are like sheep being led to the slaughter when dealing with people who are purposefully deceptive.

In his book, The Islamization of America, Aduallah al-Araby quotes a disturbing letter from the Reverend Guiseppa Barnardini, Catholic Archbishop of Izmir (Smyrna), Turkey to the Pope. In it he referred to a recent gathering of Christians and Muslims for the purpose of interfaith dialogue. He recalls that during the meeting an outspoken Muslim of authority stood up and calmly stated with assurance: “Thanks to your democratic laws, we will invade you. Thanks to our religious laws, we will dominate you.”

In discussing the geo-strategic situation of the ‘last days,’ Jesus told His disciples, “You’ll hear of wars and rumors of wars, but that’s not the end.” In response to their direct question, “What will be the sign of Your coming?” Jesus answered, “Watch out that no one deceives you.” Deception is an integral part of Islamic theology. Through the liberal media’s constant hammering of moral equivalency plus the nonsense of political correctness many Christians are fearful of addressing this reality. I would be less than your friend if I failed to sound an alert. Be warned, and do not be deceived – Islam is not a ‘peaceful religion.’ Muslims do not assimilate into foreign cultures – they only dominate.
